PairMundo

AMBASSADOR GUIDE · SOCIAL MEDIA

Posts that bring people in.

Hashtags, what to post, and how to say you're working with PairMundo. Keep it next to your starter kit.

THE THREE RULES

1. Say it's an ad. Every post, at the start.
2. Always add your link. It's how people are counted as yours.
3. Be yourself. Your story beats any slogan.

RULE 1 · SAY IT'S AN AD

You're paid for sign-ups, so every post is an ad

The law in most countries says so, and it keeps people's trust. Put the ad label at the start of the caption or on the first frame of a video, not hidden among other hashtags. Where the app offers it, also switch on the "Paid partnership" label (Instagram, TikTok, Facebook).

The label to use where you post

COUNTRY	WRITE
Sweden	Reklam
Colombia, Mexico, Argentina, Chile, Peru	#Publicidad
Spain	#Publi
Brazil	#Publi
Germany, Austria	Werbung
France	Publicité
UK, US, Ireland and anywhere else in English	#ad

Example. "#Publicidad · Hace dos años fui au pair en Suecia y me cambió la vida…"
Not okay: "…join here! #aupair #travel #love #publicidad" (hidden at the end).

Not sure about your country? Ask PairMundo before you post.

HASHTAGS

A few good hashtags beat thirty random ones

How many

3–5	Instagram. At the end of the caption, after your link.
3–5	TikTok. In the caption. The words you say in the video matter as much.
1–2	Facebook. Groups and pages barely use them.
0	WhatsApp and Messenger. Hashtags do nothing there. Send your link.

The mix: 1 big + 2 niche + 1 local

Big	The topic everyone searches. #aupair
Niche	The exact people you want. #aupairsweden #seraupair
Local	Your city, school or club. #Bogotá #Uppsala

Always add #PairMundo too, so all ambassador posts can be found together.

Keep them fresh

- Swap two or three tags from post to post. Pasting the same block every time looks like spam.
- Use the language of the people you want to reach. Write in Spanish for Colombians, in Swedish for Swedish families.
- Tap a hashtag before you use it. If the top posts are spam or have nothing to do with au pairs, skip it.

Never use

- × Tags that promise something: #visaguaranteed, #jobsabroad, #visagarantizada, #empleo.
- × Other agencies' or apps' names.
- × Trending tags that have nothing to do with the post.

WHAT TO POST

Ideas that work

Your story	Where you went, the family, what you learned, the hard bits too. Your best post, by far.
A day in the life	Breakfast with the kids, the language class, a weekend trip. Short video or a carousel.
Myth or true?	"Au pairs are just cheap nannies." Then the real answer: hours, pocket money and rules are set by each country.
How the app works	Swipe, match when it's mutual, chat, then a video call inside the app before anyone decides.
Answer a question	Take one real question from your DMs and answer it in a story.
Tips for profiles	A clear photo and a few honest sentences: without them, nobody sees your profile.

Make it easy to join

- Put your link in your bio, and say "link in my bio" in posts.
- On stories, use the link sticker with your link.
- Reply to every comment and message within a day. Personal answers are what turn people into sign-ups.

Photos and people

- ✕ No children's faces unless their parents said yes in writing.
- ✕ No other people's names, numbers or screenshots of chats.

BEFORE YOU POST

A 30-second check

- ☐ The ad label is at the start (and "Paid partnership" is on, if offered).
- ☐ My link is in the post or in my bio.
- ☐ 3 to 5 hashtags: 1 big, 2 niche, 1 local, plus #PairMundo.
- ☐ Nothing promises a visa, a job, a salary or a match.
- ☐ No children's faces without their parents' written OK.
- ☐ It sounds like me, not like an advert.
- ☐ I'm posting in a group? I asked the admin first.

Do

- ✓ Post once or twice a week, steadily.
- ✓ Tell PairMundo which posts worked.
- ✓ Ask for a QR code with its own tag for a school or group.

Don't

- ✕ Buy followers or likes.
- ✕ Spam groups or DMs.
- ✕ Speak for PairMundo to the press.
