PairMundo

🚀 Launch: 24 November

The Founding Partner Race

For YAIJ. Families are already signed up and waiting to swipe. The au pairs they see on day one get the first likes, chats and placements.

What you can win

Top 3: in our launch ads

The 3 agencies with the most finished profiles are named in PairMundo's launch-week ads.

10 by 13 Nov: a spotlight

Every agency with 10 finished profiles by Friday 13 November gets its own post on our Instagram and Facebook.

Top 3: Founding partner

A "Founding partner" label next to your name on every one of your au pairs' profiles.

We do the typing

1. Send Badji a list of candidates who agreed to join: name, email, country they'd like to go to.
2. We email each one a personal sign-up link with your code already filled in.
3. They add a photo and a few lines, and they're live for families.

Only send people who agreed to share their details with PairMundo.

Or share your link

Your au pairs enter your code at sign-up:

YAIJ

pairmundo.com/?ref=YAIJ#/register?role=aupair

Families then see "Prepared by YAIJ" on their profile. Au pairs never pay.

How it counts

Counts	A finished au pair profile: a photo plus a few lines, so families can see it, from someone who joined with your code.
Every Monday	Badji sends your numbers: who joined, who's live, who's still missing a photo, and where you stand.
Dates	Wed 4 Nov to Mon 23 Nov 2026. Winners announced in launch week.
