PairMundo

JUST FOR YOU · DON'T LEAVE THIS BEHIND

Walk-in script for real estate offices

Before the visit

- Pick offices that sell villas and large flats (check their listings on Hemnet).
- Go Tuesday to Thursday mornings. Avoid Mondays and the hours around viewings.
- Bring 3 leave-behinds and 10 inserts in each language (cut the insert sheets in half).

Opening (30 seconds)

> Hej! Do you mind if I speak English? I'm Badji, and I run PairMundo, a new Swedish app where families find an au pair. Many of your buyers are families moving somewhere bigger, and childcare is often their next big question. Could I leave some material for your welcome folder?

If they're curious

> You just add our insert, or a line, to your welcome information. The office gets its own code and earns about 150 kr for each family who buys a Family Pass, and about 420 kr when an au pair stay starts. No fee, no commitment.

> And the families get a gift from you: 30 free days with your office's code, to use whenever they're ready within a year, plus 14 days free right away.

Common objections

- "We don't do partnerships like that." No problem. Could I leave a sheet for the agents anyway, for anyone who'd like to be an ambassador themselves?
- "Are we even allowed to take payment?" Yes, as long as the buyer is told. You can also skip the payment and just add the insert.
- "Who decides?" Ask for the office manager (kontorschef) or franchise owner (franchisetagare), and book 15 minutes.

Afterwards

- Write down names, emails and what you agreed, the same day.
- Send a thank-you email within 24 hours with the office's code and QR code.
- Follow up after a week if you haven't heard back.
